Please note:

Admission appeals are required to be heard within the above time-limits set. However, the service appreciates the importance of determining a child’s school in advance of the new academic year and therefore, where possible, the Appeals Service will attempt to hear all appeals filed (except those for In Year Admissions) before the start of the school year on 25th August 2021. Where this is not possible, then the latest these appeals will be held, will be in accordance with the above timetable.
