Red Word Challenge Learning Ideas

5 minutes games to help you learn and have fun together whilst completing your Red Word Challenge!

no go to into	Skittles: Write the red words your child is learning on slips of paper and place them in cups upside down or on bottles. Use socks balled up or a ball to knock the words down – then read the words you have knocked down.
	Word Pong: Write the red words your child is learning on slips of paper and place them in cups or bowls. Use socks balled up or a ball to aim into the cups – then read the words you have gotten the ball into. Even better your child could write the words on the slips of paper first.
	Splat: The adult or child can write the red words you are learning on slips of paper. Then as the adult calls out the word. Read it and then SPLAT it. This can be with a fly splat, a spatula, or your hand.
	Stepping words: The adult or child can write the red words you are learning on slips of paper. Then the child must walk from one side of the room to the other – stepping on the words and reading them.
Can you find these tricky words? my all you blas She are	POPit wordsearch: Create a wordsearch by writing on your POPit in felt tip pen and writing a list of words to find. Then POP the words you are learning.
come sid on on on one what little ure	Pancakes: Make red word pancakes – writing the words on circle pieces of paper or cardboard. Can you flip and read the word in a frying pan?
all was w a s	Build a word: Create individual letter cards for each red word you are learning. Turn them upside down, then take it in turns to turn over and find the pieces of the red words. Like the picture demonstrates.
Said	Red Word Hunt: Use post-its or slips of paper – write the words you are learning then hide them around the house. You could keep them in certain places to practice each time you see it. Or you could hunt them all down and read them all as you go!