

Hello.

On Tuesday 30th January at 2:30pm we are holding a Parent Workshop for you all to come and see what Family Learning is and what courses we will be offering. This is also an opportunity for you to meet other parents and sign up for future events. Please let the school know by 26th January if you would like to come.

You said, we listened...

When dropping off children into the EYFS playground, we politely ask that only the parent(s) of the child or person dropping off the child goes on to the playground. We have a duty to safeguard our children and one of the ways that we do this is by limiting the number of adults on the playground.

At the beginning of the week, we welcomed in leaders from schools across the country as part of our Challenge Partners review. We were really pleased with their report which you can read here: Knighton-Mead-Primary-Academy-Challenge-Partners-QAR-report.pdf \(knighton-tmet.uk\)

They were all very impressed with the children and described them as being polite, confident and bubbly.

A favourite quote of mine was 'Another dimension to this genuine, family-orientated philosophy is the 'everyone is welcome' culture, which permeates all of school life.' I feel that it encapsulates the ethos of Knighton Mead.

Have a wonderful weekend,
Miss Rebecca Smith.
